Many thanks to Rob Marchie for his excellent presentation on the African American experience in the Civil War

Our Speaker for March is

Jay Jorgensen

Jay will talk about

"Lincoln the War President"

Jay received his undergraduate degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University; graduate degree from American Military University; and his Juris Doctor from Villanova University Law School. Jay is currently retired after many years of service as a judge in Middlesex County. Jay is a lecturer and a member of our round table.

Where Am I now?

Answer to February "where are we now"?

At the Lutheran Seminary Cupola, Gettysburg PA

Any member who has an interesting photo that they think may stump our Civil War experts please e-mail it to Bob at rmeany@aol.com and it will be included in a future newsletter.

MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

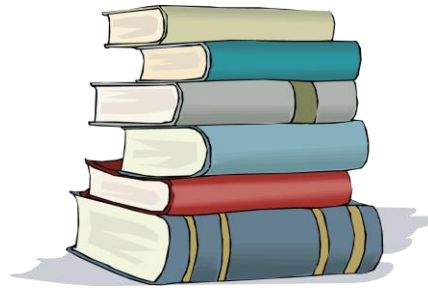

Which lieutenant general became an advocate of women's rights after the war? (Hint: he fought in the Atlanta, Franklin and Nashville campaigns)

Answer to February Trivia Question: What former medical professor and organizer of the ambulance corps and reserve hospitals of the CSA amputated Stonewall Jackson's arm? Hunter Holmes McGuire. Until recently a hospital in Richmond Virginia was named after McGuire. In 2023 the department of Veterans Affairs quietly changed the name of its medical center to the Richmond VA Medical Center. For more on McGuire visit this link: <https://www.hollywoodcemetery.org/hunter-h-mcguire>
