Our speaker for January is Larry Korczyk Presenting “the 1st Texas Regiment”.

Larry is a Licensed Battlefield Guide at Gettysburg National Military Park and serves as Vice President of the Association of Licensed Battlefield Guides. One of his recent achievements is a co-author of a book called Top Ten at Gettysburg, published March 2017, as well as a co-author on the book General Jackson and General Lee. Since 2002, Larry has been a Civil War reenactor with the 2nd Rhode Island Infantry Volunteers, acting as Company Commander. A long-standing member of the Robert E. Lee Civil War Round Table, and the chairman of the James I. Robertson, Jr. Literary Prize for Confederate History. Larry’s passion and love for history are reflected in each and every tour that he gives

Many thanks to Kevin Pawlik for his excellent presentation of The 2nd Manassas Campaign

Answer to December “Where Am I” (above)
This is Trevilian Station Battlefield in Virginia

Can you guess where this is?

If you would like to submit a picture for consideration in our “Where Am I now” section please email the picture to me along with the answer.

MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

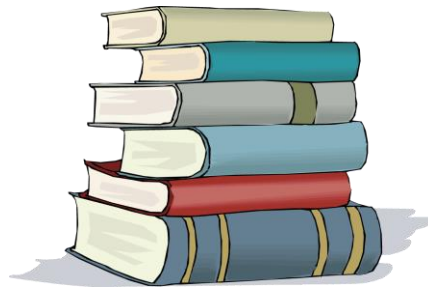

Since commanders were usually at a fair distance from the sites of conflict, how were they able to order their troops to fall back?

Answer to December Trivia Question: Which person of high office was described in the December 1861 issue of "Harpers Weekly" as a man who is shrewd and honest but not a great leader? Abraham Lincoln
